

WHO WE ARE

We are a young and fast growing start-up company, currently expanding its e-commerce operations across Europe. We are focused on selling our factory-produced products via our online shop. These products are in large related to the set-up of chimney systems. We always strive for high quality in every aspect of our company and innovative shopping experiences. These standards have led to a top position within the market, on which we are looking forward to build further.

We are looking for a new employee in:

Online Marketing/Sales (w/m/d) for the swedish market in Bremen

YOUR TASKS

If you are an individual with a strong interest in marketing and sales and are keen to fill a position in our new constructed office then you are in the right place!

- You manage own projects including keyword research, creation of effective text ads and building new search campaigns
- You work with Google Analytics & other tools to measure success of activities within your country
- You analyze performance data, create reports and optimize SEA campaigns based on given KPIs
- You work with different Content Management Systems
- You create and execute content campaigns for PR, SEO and Social Media

YOUR PROFILE

- Degree and/or professional experience in communications or business studies with a focus on marketing, or a related field
- Hands-on mentality and interest in learning about how a start-up is built from scratch
- Excellent communication skills
- Excellent command of Microsoft Office tools (Excel, Word, PowerPoint)

- Swedish as a native level and fluency in English and/or German are mandatory requirements

OUR OFFER

As a successful candidate, you will actively collaborate with the marketing & business development team, and directly be involved in the development, coordination and execution of a variety of internal and external marketing and sales campaigns.

- Dynamic flair in new constructed office in the city center of Bremen,
- Motivated team with flat hierarchies, team events and a spirit of comradery,
- The opportunity to shape a rapidly growing company and make a valuable contribution to its growth Our international team of e-commerce and sales experts is looking forward to getting to know you.

position kind: fulltime (40 h/week)

Please email your resume, cover letter and job references exclusively via E-Mail to Mr. Chen Sun (c.sun@eschimney.com).

We are looking forward to your application!

ES Chimney System GmbH

Am Wall 113

28195 Bremen